New Mexican Studies Instructor

United World College-USA is seeking a temporary, full-time New Mexican Studies Instructor for Fall semester beginning in August 2022. The teacher will be responsible for teaching five classes of New Mexican Studies. The ideal applicant will hold a Master's degree in history or a related subject, and have at least three (3) years' experience teaching New Mexican Studies.

Instructional Responsibilities

New Mexican Studies Instructor: A full-time New Mexican Studies Instructor is responsible for teaching five classes of New Mexican Studies to first-year students during Fall semester.

Course Content and Assessment: The teacher is responsible for covering the required course content and assessing student performance based upon a standard set of requirements and criteria provided by the School that are linked to NMPED standards.

Grades and Reports: The teacher will compile grades and write a synopsis of the class for student reports at the end of the semester. Teachers are to track submissions and attendance using PowerSchool and Schoology (the affiliated LMS).

General Responsibilities

Meetings: All full-time faculty are to attend all employee meetings, faculty meetings, faculty professional development sessions, department meetings, and all-school assemblies.

Orientation: Faculty participation in Orientation in August is critical to the success of the program, and all are required to participate in several aspects of orientation that are clearly laid out at the start of the school year.

Leadership: All UWC-USA employees are expected to provide varying levels of leadership in order to support the UWC mission. Examples include but are not limited to:

- Actively participating and contributing to committee or task force assignments, providing leadership in campus-wide events or initiatives, strategic planning efforts, in the experiential education program, the dormitories, dining hall, and/or in physical plant initiatives.
- Initiating strategic discussions and sharing thoughtful and innovative ideas with your co-workers for carrying out the UWC mission and successfully completing day to day work assignments.
- Demonstrating a growth mindset by believing and acknowledging that intelligence, skills, learning and creativity can all grow with time and experience.
- In all interactions, upholding the UWC mission and values, and creating an environment that promotes and values diversity, equity and inclusion.

UWC-USA is an international boarding school. It enrolls 240 students in grades 11 and 12. All students follow the IB Diploma Program. Roughly twenty percent of the students come from the U.S.; the remainder represent more than 90 different countries. Students are admitted on the basis of merit, potential, and promise.

To apply, complete an application form. Applications will be accepted until the position is filled. The successful candidate is required to either be vaccinated, as vaccines are available, or provide a medical or religious waiver, prior to starting this position at UWC-USA. UWC-USA is an equal opportunity employer.

UWC-USA does not discriminate in its educational programs, activities, or admission and employment practices based on race, color, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, disability, age, religion, ancestry, or any other legally protected class.
