

FATHERS New Mexico

Fathers New Mexico is seeking: Case Manager/Social Workers

JOB SUMMARY:

A Case Manager/Social Worker at Fathers New Mexico is responsible for listening to each participating parent and to provide substantive ideas in support of addressing each of the parent's concerns as well as respectful and productive feedback on the parent's choices and actions. Social Workers outreach to fathers in a purposeful manner, prioritizing fathers with the highest needs. Social Workers are responsible to work with individuals and families from a place of humility and to conscientiously pursue options to meet participants needs. Social Workers must engage professional development and be open to correction, ideas that challenge and to working as a team member. Social Workers support and operationalize the mission of Fathers New Mexico and its work with families. A Social Worker maintains positive relationships with other staff, volunteers, clients/participants, professional collaborators and supporters of Fathers New Mexico. A Fathers New Mexico Social Worker willingly brings their expertise and insights to the team, in the spirit of constant improvement for the organization.

In addition to one-on-one support of individual dads, this position will Plan and facilitate Dad's Groups for participants. This person may also be asked to support organizational development and promotional activities.

Requirements:

A professional with an appropriate combination of education and experience will be considered. Bilingual (English/Spanish) preferred.

Must have a legal driver's license and an operational vehicle that complies with all relevant NM laws.

Able to pass a criminal background check.

How to Apply:

Email Cover Letter and Resume to Johnny Wilson - johnny@fathersnewmexico.org